

Changing Climates and the Media: Lancaster Workshop

Date: Monday, 21st Sep 2015

Venue: Charles Carter Building, Room A15

Venue location: <https://www.lancaster.ac.uk/maps/campus.pdf>

10:00 – Welcome Coffee/tea

10:30 – Opening

10:45 – Changing Climates

John Urry, Carmen Dayrell, Tony McEnery (Lancaster University)

Marcus Müller (Technische Universität Darmstadt)

Maria Cristina Caimotto, Osman Arrobbio (University of Turin)

Discussant: Glenn Watts (Environment Agency)

12:00 – Lunch

12:45 – Media coverage of climate change in a comparative perspective

Reiner Grundmann (University of Nottingham)

13:15 – Dominant themes in the international media coverage of the IPCC reports

James Painter (University of Oxford)

13:45 – UK television reporting of the 2013-14 UN IPCC reports

Neil Gavin (University of Liverpool)

14:15 – Coffee/tea break

14:45 – Taming the climate? Corpus analysis of parliamentary debate on the Climate Change Bill

Rebecca Willis (Lancaster University/ Green Alliance)

15:15 – Exploring representations of 'essential' energy use in the UK media

Neil Simcock (Lancaster University)

15:45 – Communicating Climate Change Futures: The Role of Local News Media

Alison Anderson (Plymouth University)

16:15 – Closing

